

Chapter 30 Outline

Reporting and Recordkeeping Requirements
Posting Requirements
Inspections: Employers' and Employees' Rights and Remedies
State Workplace Safety and Health Programs Under OSHA
OSHA Regulations on Bloodborne Pathogens
Medical Emergencies
Hazard Communication Standard
Important Points for Management

Competencies

1. Describe the employer's duty regarding a place of employment as mandated by OSHA; and list OSHA's major functions, state OSHA's jurisdiction, and cite examples of safety and health standards set forth by OSHA. (pp. 437–438)
2. Explain OSHA reporting and recordkeeping requirements. (pp. 438–439)
3. Describe the OSHA posting requirements. (p. 440)
4. Explain employers' and employees' rights and remedies with regard to OSHA inspections. (pp. 440–442)
5. Describe state workplace safety and health programs under OSHA, summarize OSHA regulations on bloodborne pathogens, and review medical emergency policies. (pp. 442–445)
6. List and describe the primary requirements of the OSHA Hazard Communication Standard. (pp. 445–447)