

INTERNATIONAL HOTELS

Development and Management

Second Edition

Chuck Yim Gee

Contributing Author: A. J. Singh

Contents

Preface	xv
About the Author and Contributing Author	xvii
Part I Overview and Historical Perspective	1
1 Globalization, Tourism, and the Lodging Sector	3
Globalization and the Business World.....	3
The Dissolution of Borders • Tourism in the Global Environment • Defining the Transnational Hotel Company
The Tourism Industry	6
The Economic Impact of Travel and Tourism • The Geographic Distribution of Tourism • Travel Demand Determinants
The International Lodging Industry	13
Global Distribution and Structure • Global Hotel Performance • Types of Hotel Products • Hotel Guests
Challenges of the Globalized Lodging Industry	19
Summary	20
2 The Emergence of International Hotels	25
Historical Aspects	25
The Development of Chains • Development Abroad
American Hotel Chains.....	34
Separation of Ownership from Management • Segmentation and Foreign Expansion
Profiles of Selected International Chains That Began in America ...	35
Hilton • InterContinental • Sheraton • Holiday Inn • Hyatt • Choice Hotels International
European Chains.....	40
Club Méditerranée • Accor • Le Méridien • Sol Meliá
Indian Chains	45
The Taj Group • Oberoi

vi Contents

Asia-Pacific Chains	47
New Otani • Nikko • Mandarin Oriental • Peninsula • Dusit International
An African Chain	50
The Airline Connection	51
Advantages of Linkage • Disadvantages of Linkage • Major Linkages
Mergers and Acquisitions.....	54
Consolidation • Strategic Alliances
Summary	56
3 Political Aspects of the International Travel, Tourism, and Lodging Industry	61
Barriers to Travel, Tourism Investment, and Business	62
Barriers Affecting Travelers • Lodging Investment Barriers • Lodging Operational Barriers
Government Hotel Regulations	69
Price Control Measures • Labor Regulations • Room Taxes • Other Regulations • The Competitiveness Index
International Organizations Dealing with Barriers	72
World Tourism Organization • Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development • General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade • International Monetary Fund • International Hotel & Restaurant Association • World Travel & Tourism Council
The Need for Government Support	77
Foreign Investment Incentives • Bureaucratic Red Tape • Tourism Policy
National Tourism Organizations	80
International Lodging Chains and Developing Countries	81
Identifying Advantages and Disadvantages • Maximizing Returns from Tourism • Lodging Chains and Host Governments—Inevitable Conflict
Political Stability	84
Impact on Investment Decisions • Impact on Travelers
Travel Advisories	88
Political Motivations

Political Risk	92
Difficulty of Assessing Political Risk • Reducing Vulnerability in Risky Situations • Management Control in an Unstable Environment
Crisis Management.....	97
The Written Crisis Management Plan
Summary	98
Appendix: Excerpt from a Hotel Crisis Management Plan	102
Part II International Hotel Investment, Development, and Agreements.....	121
4 Financing International Hotels.....	123
Financial Structuring for Hotel Development	124
Equity Financing • Debt Considerations • Criteria for Loans • Interest Rates • Public and Private Sector Funding
Current Sources of Capital: A Global Perspective	131
Foreign Financing
Hotel Financing in Developing Countries	134
Development Banks • Other Lending Sources
Government Investment Incentives	137
Abatement of Capital Outlay • Abatement of Operating Expenses • Securing the Investment • Selective Incentives • Excessive Bureaucracy
Publicly Listed and Privately Owned Lodging Companies.....	142
Equity Investments in the United States • Equity Investments in Europe • Equity Investments in Asia
Accounting Conventions	151
Reconciliation • Tax Rules • Uniform Systems of Accounts
Summary	155
5 The Decision to Go Global	161
Balancing Global and Local Perspectives.....	161
Glocalization
Transnational, Global, and Multinational Organizations	163
The Case for International Expansion • Target Regions • Potential Problems and Considerations

Geographic Distribution	168
Distribution Patterns • Variations by Hotel Type
Foreign Hotel Chains in the United States.....	169
Industry Structure.....	170
Ownership and Types of Affiliations	170
Management Agreements • Equity Participation • Affiliation Considerations
Operating in a Multinational Environment.....	175
The Environment • Centralization and Decentralization • Operation Planning and Control
Summary.....	178
6 Developing an International Hotel Project	183
The Development Team.....	184
The Developer • The Hotel Operator and Other Consultants
The Five Phases of Hotel Development.....	185
Where to Develop	186
Business Environment Analysis • Market Potential • Forecasting Sales • Profitability Versus Risk
Infrastructure Requirements	189
Water • Power • Communication • Sewage and Drainage • Transportation • Health–Care Provisions • Labor Force • Security
Working with an Established Development Plan	194
Identifying a Specific Site	194
Land Availability • Zoning
The Preliminary Site and Building Analysis.....	199
Market Feasibility Study.....	200
Information Gathering
The Approval Process	203
Environmental Impact Statements • Impact Fee Assessments • Working with Local Interests
Design Considerations.....	204
Architectural Themes • Design Trends • Physical Surroundings • Urban Design • Older Structures
Design and Construction in a Cross–Cultural Environment	208
Understanding Foreign Business Practices

Building Requirements	208
Regulatory Control • Fire Safety • Security • Hygiene • Electricity and Gas
Global Initiatives for Sustainable Development.....	211
Summary	213
7 International Hotel Contracts and Agreements	219
Selecting the Hotel Company	219
Management Contracts.....	220
Management Contract Services • Management Fee Structures • Contract Length and Renewal Options • Contract Termination • Control of Operations • Budgeting and Spending Limits • Insurance • Governing or Applicable Law • Staffing • Restrictive Covenants • Arbitration • Global Trends and Issues
The Joint Venture	230
Franchise Agreements.....	231
Advantages and Disadvantages • Agreement Contents • Franchise Fees • Agreement Length and Termination • Hotel Name
Summary	233
Part III Human Resources and Cultural Diversity.....	237
8 Understanding Cultural Diversity	239
Working with Foreign Colleagues.....	239
The U.S. Workforce • The Effects of Cultural Diversity • The Foreign-Based Hotel Company
Cultural Perceptions.....	244
Time • Cultural Thought Patterns • Communication • Personal Space and Touch • Material Possessions • Family Roles and Relationships • Religion • Personal Achievement • Competitiveness and Individuality
Business Protocol	249
Greetings • Gift-Giving • Business Cards • Names and Titles • Dining Concerns
Cultural Considerations in Negotiations	252
Cultural Negotiating Styles • Improving the Negotiating Process
Cultural Perspectives of Management.....	257
View of the Job • Managers as Paternalistic Leaders • Management and Power Perceptions • Power Distance and Individualism
Summary	260

9	Selection and Preparation of International Hotel Executives ...	267
	Hotel Openings for Expatriates	267
	Local Versus Expatriate Hiring.....	268
	Selecting Managers for the Hotel Abroad • Skills Transfer • Work Visa and Immigration Restrictions • Expatriates in Asia • The Cost of Expatriate Employment • Hiring the Local National • Regional Hospitality Education and Training
	Expatriate Manager Selection	277
	The High Cost of Personnel Mistakes • The Many Hats of an Expatriate Manager • Evaluating Candidates for Foreign Assignments • Expatriate Acculturation
	The Expatriate Manager's Contract.....	281
	Pre-Departure Training.....	282
	Designing Pre-Departure Training Programs • Pre-Departure Training Options
	Health Considerations	289
	Other Pre-Departure Activities.....	290
	Culture Shock.....	290
	Excessive Acculturation.....	291
	Repatriation	291
	Reverse Culture Shock and Readjustment • Minimizing Repatriation Difficulties
	Summary	293
10	International Human Resource Management.....	299
	The Field of IHRM.....	299
	Employee Acquisition	302
	Employment Ratios • Labor Supply • Possible Solutions for Labor Shortages
	Recruitment	305
	Imported Labor/Immigrants • Job Perceptions Affecting Recruitment • Family or Educational Status • Impacts of Hotel Class • Hiring for Joint Ventures • Factors Affecting the Hiring Decision
	Orientation.....	308
	Cultural Attitudes toward Service • Universality of Hospitality
	Training in a Multicultural Environment.....	310
	Supervision	311
	Motivation and Productivity • Decision-Making • Communication

Compensation and Benefits.....	317
Trade Unions and Unionism	318
Contrasting Examples of Unionism
Human Resource Development.....	320
Performance Appraisals • Corrective Actions
Discharge	322
Summary	323
Part IV International Hotel Operations.....	327
11 Special Considerations in Managing International Hotel Operations	329
Hotel Activities and the Management Process.....	329
Organizing the International Hotel.....	333
Managing Corporate Culture in the International Hotel.....	334
Exporting Corporate Culture • Corporate Culture Impacts • Cultural Perspectives at the Top
Managing Communication in the International Hotel.....	337
Communicating with the Host Community • Language Differences
Managing Guest Service	340
Provisions for the International Guest • Observing Protocol • The International Business Traveler
Managing International Hotel Operations.....	347
Accounting for International Hotels • Purchasing • Utilities • Equipment Maintenance • Security
Legal Issues.....	356
Innkeepers' Liability • IH&RA's Hotel Regulations • UNIDROIT Efforts • Environmental Regulations and Voluntary Guidelines
Summary	359
Appendix A: International Symbols for the Hospitality Industry ...	363
Appendix B: International Hotel Regulations	365
12 International Hotel Classifications and Standards.....	369
Historic Perspectives	369
Fundamentals of Classification Systems	370
Criteria • Use of Symbols • Classification Authority • Objective Assessments

Problems and Issues of International Hotel Classification	374
Subjectivity • Quality and Quantity of Service and Facilities • “Let the Market Rule” • Obstacles to International Agreement • Cost • Industry Objections • Government Perspective • Cultural Influence on Standards and Service • Variations in Facilities • Harmony Versus Homogeny • Advantages and Positive Attributes
Selected Classification Systems in Practice	380
Guide Michelin • Mobil Travel Guide • American Automobile Association • Britain’s Harmonized Classification System • Ireland’s Classification System • Spain’s Regional Approach • Other Classification Systems
Toward Worldwide Standards.....	388
World-Class Service Standards.....	389
Summary	390
13 International Hotel Sales and Marketing.....	395
Internationalizing the Hotel.....	395
Market Research.....	396
Guest Analysis • Competition Analysis • Forecasting Demand • Research Sources
Developing an International Marketing Strategy	398
Corporate Marketing and Sales Efforts • Accounting for Cultural Differences • Marketing U.S. Hotels to Foreign Visitors
Understanding Various Travel Distribution Systems.....	401
Automated Global Distribution Systems • Travel Agents and the Hotel Booking Process • Working with Travel Agents • Common Hotel–Travel Agency Relationship Problems • Resolving Relationship Problems • Tour Operators • Hotel Representation Companies and Consortia
Segmentation.....	412
Ways to Segment • Branding
Product Positioning.....	416
Promotional Tools and Techniques	417
Advertising • Collateral Materials and Sales Promotions • Cooperative Marketing • Public Relations • Frequent–Guest Programs • Property Website • Effectiveness of Tools/Techniques
Personal Selling.....	426
Travel Trade Shows • Travel Missions • Familiarization Tours
Summary.....	432

Part V	Looking Ahead	437
14	Global Competition and the Future	439
	Long-Term Tourism Growth Trends	439
	Factors Influencing Future Growth • Demographic, Economic, and Social Trends • Competition from Other Sources
	Deregulation and Free Trade	444
	The European Union’s Impact on Travel and Tourism	444
	European Union Tourism Policy • Transportation • Tour Operators • Travel Agents • The Hotel Industry • Standardized Currency • Travel Costs • Specific Countries
	Tourism Growth by Region.....	450
	Europe • North America • Asia and the Pacific • South and Central America • Africa • Middle East
	Privatization	456
	Airline Privatization
	Transportation Developments	457
	Aircraft Technology • Space Travel • Train Technology • Deregulation • Transportation Infrastructure
	Technology and Automation.....	460
	Global Distribution Systems	461
	Development Issues.....	462
	Tourism and the Environment.....	464
	Hotels and the Environment • The Environment’s Importance to Tourism
	Alternative Tourism.....	468
	Human Resource Issues.....	471
	Hotel Company Diversification and Growth	473
	Mergers, Acquisitions, and Cooperative Arrangements
	Conclusion	475
	Index.....	477